Mozambique Gas & Energy Summit University Essay Contest

In Partnership With Local Institutions To Support Mozambique's Social & Educational Development

Participating Universities:

The Mozambique Gas & Energy Summit is proudly supporting the educational sector of Mozambique by inviting lead universities with engineering programmes to participate and share opinions with Government and operators.

The need for Mozambican professionals in areas of engineering, geology, oil & gas exploration and gas development knowledge is key to the sustainable development of Mozambique's economy, and therefore more universities are being urged to open related academic programmes.
